Source4Teachers Announces Partnership with BLaST Intermediate Unit: Hiring Effort Underway for Educational Professionals

Northern Pennsylvania – Source4Teachers, a leading provider of educational staffing solutions for pre-K-12 school districts, recently partnered with BLaST Intermediate Unit to recruit, hire, place and manage qualified substitute teachers within the unit. BLaST serves the educational needs of public and nonpublic schools in Bradford, Lycoming, Sullivan, and Tioga counties in Pennsylvania.

“This partnership will allow us to provide a cost-effective and high-quality program to schools served by BLaST IU while creating significant job opportunities for northern Pennsylvania residents,” said J. Jeffery Fox, CEO, Source4Teachers. “We are excited to bring our support and resources to both the students and the educational professionals within the BLaST Intermediate Unit.”

Source4Teachers offers top-quality training, guidance, support and flexibility to ensure that educational professionals succeed and provide their students with the best opportunities available. Through interactive training courses taught by seasoned educational professionals, employees learn the latest techniques in classroom and behavior management, how to handle difficult situations and engaging and instructing students across multiple grade and education levels.

Source4Teachers places more than 3,500 daily and long-term substitutes, paraprofessionals, and support staff in approximately 100 clients in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. School districts retain control over the program while realizing considerable savings in pension contributions, cost of benefits and reduced costs for unemployment, workers’ compensation and liability insurance and increased operational efficiencies.
