SOURCE4TEACHERS EXPANDS ITS PRESENCE IN NEW JERSEY WITH ADDITION OF ELIZABETH PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Company Will Recruit, Hire, Train and Place Substitute Teachers and School Aides into all Elizabeth Public Schools

CHERRY HILL, NJ (March 3, 2015) – Source4Teachers, a leading provider of educational managed service solutions for kindergarten through 12th grade school districts, today announced that it has entered into an agreement with Elizabeth Public Schools in Elizabeth, New Jersey to manage the substitute and paraprofessional program in its entirety. The partnership requires Source4Teachers to recruit, screen, train, hire and manage applicants looking to be part or full-time teachers in Elizabeth Public Schools.

“Source4Teachers is excited to partner with Elizabeth Public Schools and eager to serve the students, parents and community of Elizabeth,” stated Kevin Bush, President, Source4Teachers. “This relationship will yield continuity of care for students and cut down on the administrative burden associated with managing the substitute process. Perhaps even more significant, we’ll be helping the district to maintain Affordable Care Act compliance and deliver operational efficiencies all while creating jobs.”

The purpose of the partnership between Source4Teachers and Elizabeth Public Schools is to improve internal processes as it relates to the placement of substitute teachers and other school aides, provide jobs to substitutes, and ultimately improve classroom continuity and student support. The Source4Teachers program formally kicks-off with an on-site informational session on Thursday, March 4, 2015 at Dwyer Academy Auditorium at 5:30 pm.

“I am gratified by the fact that this relationship will help provide a continuity of support and services for our students that we could not have under the new requirements established as part of the Affordable Care Act. This agreement will help usher in a new era of support for our substitute teachers and substitute team members,” stated Board President Ana Maria Amin. “The most significant beneficiary of this partnership will be our children.”
