Source4Teachers Wins Several Industry Awards

Cherry Hill, N.J. – As a result of its unique and effective business model, Source4Teachers, a national educational staffing solutions firm, has been awarded several industry awards throughout 2013 recognizing the company’s growth, exceptional employees and commitment to providing cost-saving solutions to school districts without compromising quality education.

Awards won include the Philadelphia 100, based on the three-year revenue growth rate from 2010 to 2012; Philadelphia Business Journal’s South Jersey Entrepreneur Award in the “Top 5 Rapid Revenue Growth” category; South Jersey Biz’s Best Place to Work; and NJBIZ’s 50 Fastest Growing Companies, based on the revenue growth in 2012 as compared to 2010. Additionally, Source4Teachers President Kevin Bush was named one of NJBIZ’s 40 Under 40, an award that celebrates 40 of New Jersey’s most accomplished young businessmen and women who have been making headlines in their field and who share a commitment to business growth and to the community.

“We are proud to be among the top businesses in the region,” said J. Jeffrey Fox, CEO, Source4Teachers. “These awards and recognition are a testament to our dedicated employees and staff, as well as the quality of the services we provide.”

In addition to these awards, Source4Teachers was recently named a finalist for NJBIZ’s Business of the Year award in the ‘101+ Employees’ category. The Business of the Year awards program celebrates New Jersey’s most dynamic businesses and business leaders. Finalists and winners were chosen by an independent panel of judges. The Business of the Year award finalists will be recognized and the winner in each category will be announced during an awards dinner on December 9, 2013.
